

The Pennsylvania Equine Council Annual Membership Meeting and Issues Forum

November 16&17, 2018

Meeting Location & Hotel Rooms:

Super 8 Hotel, 1663 South Atherton St., State College, PA 16803

For hotel room reservations ONLY call: 814-237-8005

There is a block of rooms for PEC. Includes breakfast.

Friday, Nov.16, (5:30 p.m.)PA Equine Council, Board of Directors Meeting followed by a light reception, public is invited.

Saturday, Nov. 17,(8:00a.m. registration, program 8:30a.m. to 3:30p.m.) Focus of the day will be on Pennsylvania Equine Related Topics, health topics and PEC Economic Impact Study Results. Lunch provided.

EQUINE ISSUES AND TOPICS

The PEC Issues Forum consistently strives to present topics that members and the public will find informative and relevant.

The Facts about PA: Humane standards, handling and reporting of animal welfare cases, Emergency preparedness, disasters and our horses, Dr David Wolfgang, PDA State Veterinarian.

Invasive species have been discovered in PA– the Spotted Lanternfly and how we play a part, Capri Stiles Mikesell, Penn State Extension Educator.

Protecting youth victims from emotional, physical & sexual abuse and ensure safe sport, PEC Panel.

Updates on state and national trails issues, Bud Wills, PEC President and Gwen Wills, American Horse Council Trails and Recreation Committee

PA EQUINE COUNCIL TOPICS

Updates on Liability Insurance, Aleta Seifert, PEC Corresponding Secretary

The 2018 PA Equine Economic Impact Study will be presented and the PEC will discuss how to use the results for future direction of our state's organization.

For more information: Home phone 814-422-8686, or email aswinker@gmail.com

We hope to see you there!

Ann Swinker

PEC Board Member

REGISTRATION:

Name

Address

State

Zip

County

Phone

e-mail

Cost: Individuals: $25 Couples: $40 Includes: Reception, lunch, beverages & materials

Individuals $ _____ X Number attending _____ Total: $ _____

Couples $ _____ X Number attending _____ Total: $ _____

Please make check payable to "PEC" and submit to:

Ann Swinker, PEC Board Member

180 Windy Butte Lane

Spring Mills, PA 16875